Jordan Burnett

Founder & President, Always Ready Ministries

Author of You Are Not Qualified. That's the whole point.

Before ministry, Jordan spent more than eight years in criminal justice and law enforcement, from volunteering with Missouri Probation and Parole to serving as a probation and parole officer and later a sheriff's deputy. That work put him face to face with brokenness every day, and showed him how desperately people need the hope of the gospel. Today he equips everyday Christians to share and defend their faith with confidence, compassion, and clarity. He hosts the Always Ready podcast, and he and his wife homeschool their four boys.

Signature Talks

You Are Not Qualified. That's the Whole Point.

KEYNOTE · 30–45 MIN

Most Christians carry a list of reasons God couldn't use them. Drawing on his new book, Jordan shows why feeling unqualified is often the starting point, not the disqualifier.

Best for: Sunday services, conferences, men's and women's events, retreats

The Question Underneath the Question

WORKSHOP · 60–90 MIN

Tough questions rarely come in debate form. Jordan teaches believers to recognize the real question being asked and answer with confidence and compassion. Churches may submit their own questions in advance.

Best for: youth and college groups, adult classes, parents, homeschool co-ops

Your Story, His Story

WORKSHOP · 60–90 MIN

A hands-on workshop where attendees shape their testimony into a clear, natural story, then practice real gospel conversations in a low-pressure setting.

Best for: equipping nights, small group leaders, outreach teams

Staggering: The Love of a God Who Needs Nothing

TALK OR ONE-SESSION STUDY · 45–60 MIN

If God needed nothing, why did He make you? A look at a love that came before you existed, chose you anyway, and paid the full price of the cross.

Best for: Sunday services, retreats, youth groups, the Easter season

Have a theme in mind? Jordan is glad to tailor a message to your event.
FORMATS: Keynote · Workshop · Weekend Event · Multi-Session Series. All budgets are welcome.

What Leaders Are Saying

"Have you ever felt unqualified to share your faith in Jesus? Jordan Burnett writes with honesty about fear and hesitation, pointing us back to a simple truth: God has never waited for us to feel ready before He uses us. If you've ever missed an opportunity to share God's love, this book will help you approach the next one with confidence."

Craig Groeschel, Pastor of Life.Church and New York Times bestselling author

"Jordan peels back the layers of procrastination believers often use to avoid our God commanded calling to spread the Gospel to non-believers. Thankfully, he doesn't stop there! He also shares scriptural and insightful truths to help us navigate how we can be a catalyst to share the hope found in Christ to others in our social pipeline. For those looking for guidance and practical ways to be kingdom builders this book will become a great tool."
